*Greater Love hath no man than this,
that a man lay down
his life for his friends*
John 15:13

Address Request

We have recently had mail returned with incorrect addresses that were marked “Unable to forward” with no corrected address on them. If you have moved recently please let us know your new address so we may mail your tax letter, or other correspondence, to you. You may email it to wendy@kbjs.org, or call the station.

One of our goals at KBJs is to be good financial stewards with what God provides. One way we can do that is by emailing our newsletters rather than “snail mail”. This saves on the cost of envelopes, paper, ink, and of course the stamps. If you would like to receive your newsletter via email from now on, please contact Wendy with your email address. You can email her at wendy@kbjs.org; or call the station. 903-721-7897. Thank you.

1 Corinthians 13:13

“And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.”
